THIS WEEK

FRED'S STORY

This week's program is slated to be presented by FRED BOWDEN-raconteur. Whether he will regale us with stories of the deadly sport of power boat racing, hunting in the wilds of Mexico or the art of constructing a building, or not, he promises a very informative and entertaining program. WHY NOT BRING A PROSPECTIVE MEMBER THIS THURSDAY.

LAST WEEK

READING ROCKS

Finding a few free hours in an otherwise jammed packed schedule, Becky Shevlin (ie, Mrs. Chris) gave us the rundown on our local, and very successful, program MONROVIA READS. For the very young to the elderly there are numerous programs designed to achieve literacy and instill a love of reading. Many of us have participated in Reading Across Monrovia to our great delight. As always, volunteers and financial aid are always welcomed. When you think about it, it's the Becky Shevlin's of this town that get things done and hooray for that!

IT WAS A JOY TO WELCOME

CHRIS OWENS and KAREN STRALEY back into the fold, looking good and contributing their personalities to the meeting. Both of them still need our thoughts and prayers, and I am unanimous in that!

MARK YOUR CALENDARS

- THIS WEDNESDAY is the November board meeting. It's at the crack of dawn (7:00 A.M.) at the Monrovia. It's very important that all those who should do attend (including our three new members.)
- December 11 when the Citrus Singers present their Christmas repertoire it is imperative that you make a reservation in advance, even if you don't plan to bring any guests. Lunch that day is $20.

AN IMPORTANT MESSAGE

With only one dissent, it was voted to assess any member $3 for each missed meeting. The measure will, in effect, result in a $3 savings on the cost of lunch for those in attendance. The money will help pay for the minimum meals for which we are charged when we don't meet the minimum and give at least some incentive to improve attendance!

HAVE YOU SIGNED A NEW MEMBER'S APRON YET?

The Marble Madness Game?

With HOLLY GUERIN ending the weeks and months of anticipation and agony, the MMG took a week off. This will give everyone a chance to deposit their Social Security payments into their "Discretionary Fun and Gambling Account" and begin the ordeal all over again.

$ WHINE TIME $

With enough time to wreak havoc, PRESIDENT LES slapped on a few fines; BILL WADDELL announced that he was headed to Hawaii and so a $10 levy was imposed just in case he doesn't come back. CHRIS OWENS was welcomed back with a $5 fee for the delivery of her past president's pin. Likewise, Karen Straley was assessed $5 for escaping the Kanadian Kold. JIMMY KYPREOS was tagged $10 for a bit of advertising, and was heard to say it wasn't enough (but apparently not loud enough to be heard by PL.) Mr. Tahoe (aka NORM SHAFER), having traveled near and far, was welcomed back with a $25 tab. CHRIS SHEVLIN was allowed to tout his away at college daughter for only $15. LARRY McCURLEY returned from two weeks in Maritime Canada (eh) and had to confront a $15 fee. FRED BOWDEN also 'fessed to a Canadian connection and was nailed for $25. Isn't life unfair?

BY THE WAY

PRESIDENT LES noted that several prominent names were missing from FRANK PARK'S apron, and that tribute will be given and simultaneously extracted..

That's all. Have a good week.
