THIS WEEK

The Holly and The Ivy

Long interested in the origins of the Modern Agnostic Movement, HOLLY GUERIN has become a leading authority on medieval (A.D. 800 – 1100) manuscripts and the cloistered monks who created them. For several years she has advanced the controversial theory that there is absolutely no linkage between the manuscripts and the MA Movement. HOLLY had better come prepared for a barrage of insightful questions from many in the audience who will force her to defend her life's work.

LAST WEEK

FOOTHILL UNITY CENTER EXPANDS SERVICES

Our speaker last week was Joan Whitenack, the boss of the Foothill Unity Center and a most dynamic lady. Joan's husband presented a multi-media show that told of the beginnings of the Center in a closet at Immaculate Conception Church; the Center's presence now in eleven cities along the foothills; and plans to take on even more responsibilities toward the needy in our area. Last year the Center handed out three million pounds of food, served 3.183 families and spent 95.8% of its budget strictly on direct goods and services, with the remaining few percentage points on administration and overhead. It's quite an enterprise and it needs the volunteers and donations from service clubs such as US.

THE DREADED VISITORS' SONG

Seldom has the DVS been endured by so many, what with inter-club visits by folks from the Sierra Madre and Hacienda Heights Kiwanis Clubs, and from the Glendora Kiwanian Club. Julie, CFO of the Unity Center, Joan's husband, and a fellow Kiwanian visiting in Southern California all the way from Virginia. 'Twas a lively and animated group. HOORAY!

MARK YOUR CALENDARS

- NOTE: if you are in line to be a program presenter (see the list on the reverse/front page) please send me an email with what you have in mind so it can be published.
- March 5th. . . MONROVIA READS again. It may be too late to sign up to be a reader, but check with LES or CHRIS SHEVLIN if you truly want to be a part of this worthy endeavor.
- JOHN ANDERSON and his crew handed out eco- and baby friendly bottles at the Unity Center as an on-going Kiwanis project.
- CHRIS SHEVLIN is looking for a worthwhile community service project, so if you have an idea, talk to CHRIS.

The Marble Madness Game?

Doggone it! Our unpredictable president conducted a 50/50, which was won by a lady that works in Monrovia and is a “potential” member of the Hacienda Heights Kiwanis. LES told her she could become rich if she joined our club.

$ WHINE TIME $

KAREN STRALEY was publicly thanked for organizing (?) the previous week’s tour of the new library. She then tendered a $50 donation to our foundation. WAYNE McNULTY has been proudly married to MARIE for 61 years, so he was fined a buck a year. Ditto to JIM and BRENDA, whose “buccaneer” totaled $15 cuz they aren’t as old. February birthdays were acknowledged for ROGEER JOHNSON and ULISES GUTIERREZ with “buccaneer” estimates at 50 and 28 years, respectively.
