THIS WEEK

MAIN ST vs. WALL ST

PETER HOFFMAN has arranged for us to hear from John Hawkins, one of the most influential automobile dealers in the United States. John has a view of the current financial crises from the standpoint of a business man on Main Street instead of what read from Wall Street. This promises to be a very interesting and illuminating program. BRING A PROSPECTIVE MEMBER TO THE MEETING.

LAST WEEK

KURT MADER

An Austrian whose US passport says he was born a Czech, KURT MADER related his story of “coning to America.” His passage was made possible his father earned enough money working in New York to bring the rest of the family over here. The Mader family was one of the many thousands to pass through Ellis Island KURT and his brother went from wanting to return “home” to becoming thoroughly integrated. KURT also told us about his service in the Navy in the Pacific during World War II. As is so often the case, we all seem to have an interesting story waiting to get out. Maybe soon we can get KURT to tell us how he ended up here in Monrovia.

THE DREADED VISITORS' SONG

ANDY BENCOSME hosted Kim Farley, a very dynamic lady associated with folks who produce the Extreme Makeovers as seen on TV and so we sang.

Key Club Update

Great news! After two years of being inactive Monrovia's Key Club has been reactivated. After meeting with Jessica Chang and Sandy Shiber, new faculty advisors, along with both the Principal, Assistant Principal, Ryan Garcia and Les Peterson all the paper work that needed to be filled out has been completed. Greatly helping in this process was Key Club International Representative Patricia Cridland who also attended the meeting. Our Club will provide the $100 for reactivation. Both Ryan Garcia and Chris Dattola have agreed to be Our Club representatives at their weekly meetings.

The Marble Madness Game?

The gambling instinct took over our wil, ant the marbles were "topped. ANDY' B's ticket couldn't lead him to victory, and so the kitty grows.

$ WHINE TIME $

GENE HARTIGAN was spared a fine despite a trip to Hawaii because he shamelessly ~~bribed~~ gifted PRSIDENT LES with a cap and a nice Hawaiian ~~punch~~ mug. ANDY BENCOSME didn't return from Washington D..C. with largess for The Leader and so he was fined $10. BILL WADDEL, recently returned from "the islands," but with out gifts in hand, and so he was fined $10 or 110 (I missed the end). BILL CALLAGY and JOHN HARBICHT caused a slight furor and so paid $5 each.

Have a nice week. See you Thursday
