THIS WEEK

(Maybe) BRING A GUEST DAY

Because this journal about life in a small town surrounded by BIG TOWN has to be emailed to Denmark (his name is Danish, after all) we ran out of time and couldn't make the calls needed to learn of next Thursday's doings. It's bound to be good, so (maybe) bring a prospective member.

LAST WEEK

OCHOA SPEAKS

A few months ago the city spent some of our hard-earned money and commissioned a poll of residents that was designed to find out what worked and what didn't and how people felt in general about the city and the services it provides. In turn, SCOTT OCHOA the Manager Guy interpreted the results and we learned that most folks feel OK or really OK about how things are going. A bit odd are the 4% of people who "don't know." They're probably among encountered when Jay Leno goes "jay walking, bless their ignorant hearts."

THE DREDED VISITOR SONG

She has attended so many meetings, maybe we should put her to work and have her lead the Dreaded Visitors Song, at least when Kay Callagy is the only visitor.

MARK YOUR CALENDARS:

- Nov 4th MAGIC SHOW★ ★* Direct from Princess Cruises and Las Vegas, Carson Entertainment presents ART of IMAGINATION a family friendly show. Hustle anyone ou know who might place an ad in the program and sell tickets to any body with a pulse. You'll be doing them a favor 'cuz a great show it is.

THE 50/FIFTY

While most of us hope to become wealthy, the rich just steadily just get richer. Consequently, BILL CALLAGY was last week's Big Winnah of the game.

Immediate past-President Les reacts to Sec/Treas Don remarks about the recent terrific installation on the new Div. 35 Lt. Gov. Tony Miller.

Les was speechless (that was amazing in its self) when Pres. Ryan presented a bottle of H2O from immediate past-Div. 35 Lt. Gov. Dave Wallach from the installation that took place on Oct. 3rd.

Have a GREAT Week!
See you on Thursday!
