THIS WEEK

OFFICIAL START OF HOLIDAY SEASON

We are extremely fortunate that we are on the holiday calendar of the renowned CITRUS SINGERS, thanks to the late BOB HAUGH. Bob's support of the music program is evident by his name on the performing arts building at Citrus College. For Monrovia KIWANIANS, the performance at our meeting really gets us in the holiday mood-and this week is that performance.

Two things about this Thursday:

- #1 Come early (11:30) for a glass of bubbly &
- #2 Bring an unwrapped present for the Unity Ctr

LAST WEEK

A MODEL PROGRAM!

ANDY BENCOSME presented his son's soccer coach, Ty Guthaus, sales director of the US Aesthetics Division of Lumenis, the largest manufacturer and seller of lasers. Of particular interest is the use of lasers to reduce the scarring caused by serious burns. This very new process gives a burn victim greater flexibility and makes the burned area smoother and less disfiguring. We asked lots of questions, as usual. A big thank you to ANDY.

THE DREDED VISITOR SONG

Corporate member, FLINT FERTIG hosted Phil Lujan, an assistant coach of the undefeated Monrovia High School Wildcat football team. (he's also a teacher). He was serenaded with the DVS.

THE 50/FIFTY

Beating the incredible odds against winning, XPRES LES PETERSON was the big winner. Wonder if he told his spousal unit of his good fortune.

RYAN RULES

PRESIDENT RYAN didn't do much ruling last week, missing the meeting altogether. A rumor has RYAN checking into a spa to tone things up after too much feasting; In his absence, ex--pres CHRIS SHEVLIN, managed to keep order midst the usual chaos. RYAN was fined first for $45 for an upcoming natal day. KURT MADER tendered a "Buccaneer" for turning 94 on December 21st. PHIL HOLMAN calculated his birthday fine the same way and arrived at $59. JOHN ANDERSEN obliged himself to contribute $50 to the Baby Bottle Fund. JULI GENTILE was eager to pay a "buck a year" for each of her three years of marriage, but CHRIS, an Arroyo High graduate, upped the ante tenfold and arrived at a $30 figure.

WEEK. SEE YOU
