THIS WEEK

Program chairperson of the week ANDY BENCOSME has arranged a most interesting program. Lumeins is the largest global laser device company – aesthetics, surgical and ophthalmic lasers etc. Our speaker, Ty Guthaus, runs the US aesthetic division. You may have recently seen some of their products on the Today Show or 20/20. They are working on developing burn scar market – Wounded Warrior program and developing US market for burn victims – good stuff! If you want a sneak peak at what Lumenis does here's their wed address: Lumenis.com Sound like a terrific program to bring a prospective new member.
