THIS WEEK

A CLASSICAL EDUCATION

Ever notice how many people in our club seem to know a lot about automobiles-from manufacturing to maintenance and repair? This week FRED BOWDEN (a name not usually associated with cars) will talk about some classics close to his heart. If it's anything close to his venture into boat racing, it'll be exciting.

LAST WEEK

MONROVIA – COLLEGE TOWN

Glen Dunki-Jacob, a dean and instructor at Mt. Sierra College, spoke to us about the college, the students that it attracts and what those young people walking up and down Myrtle Avenue are doing for homework. Glen is a very dynamic guy, and he must be a really great teacher.

THE RETURN OF "THE MAN"

Expecting a few kind comments about his return to the fold after surgery, WILLIAM K. CALLAGY was surprised (and left almost speechless) by having his 50 years of KIWANIS service recognized by his induction into the KIWANIS INTERNATIONAL LEGION OF HONOR. He garnered a couple of pins he can proudly wear, a LOH plaque and was responsible for everyone's crack at a special cake. Lt. Governor DAVE WALLACE made the presentation accompanied by two other members of the Hacienda Heights club. Kay Callagy watched and pinned HAIL, HAIL BILL.

The Marble Madness Game?

The game du jour was 50/50 and BILL WADDELL stepped forward to claim the cash.

$ WHINE TIME $

For the second week in a row, PRESIDENT LES failed (yes, failed) to levy a fine. Tsk, we say tsk. Though previously fined for her trip, HOLLY GUERIN gave P LESS a T-shirt any way.

Have a nice week.
See you Thursday
