THIS WEEK

WORDS TO THE WIZE

Our in-house automotive and energy policy expert, YO MAIWANDI, is in charge of the festivities this week. As of press time we hadn't heard the plan, but YO'S previous programs have all been very worthwhile. It is also an opportunity to watch a past president preside over the meeting and remember her's and his KIWANIS year.

Why not bring a prospective new member to the meeting?

LAST WEEK

THE STATION FIRE

JIM (Pizza Guy) HUNT brought along a Monrovia firefighter, Scott Haberle, who briefed us on the progress and predicted future of the devastating Station Fire. While we see images of the fire and those on the front line, the behind-the-scenes effort to coordinate the fight and form a team out of 4,500 personal quickly is most impressive-particularly when taking into account numerous aircraft. Practice, practice, practice.

THE DREDED VISITOR SONG

Kay Callagy, was allowed to remain in the meeting with her passenger so long as she didn't win the 50/50 again. Together we endured the full DVS treatment.

JEFF FORD HAS AN APRON & SO DOES NORM

In the briefest ceremony on record, CHRIS SHEVLIN reinducted (?) NORM CERSWELL back into the fold. AS an employee of the FDIC, NORM will be away a lot, but it's great having a past president and long time loyal member come home.

The Marble Madness 50/50 Game?

NORM CERSWELL got right into the swing of things by picking off last week’s 50/50. Maybe it’s a good thing he be out of town a lot.

$ WHINE TIME

Acting despot, HOLLY GUERIN was merciless. Consequently, with her using only the birthday and anniversaries data bank, JIM HUNT paid $40, SCOTT paid $38, and JOHN HARBICHT paid a whopping $78 for his double header. LARRY MELLINGER and NORM CERSWELL had their names mentioned, but I didn’t have a number next to them.
